

Gingerbread House Co-op

November/December Newsletter

Wednesday, November 27th, 2019

Photo sessions+Workshop

November 9th and 10th the photo sessions were a HUGE success! It was awesome. Thank you to Krista and all of the families who participated!

We had our first successful workshop here at Gingerbread, and the group learned how to make beeswax wraps. Watch for more exciting workshops throughout the year!

Christmas Fundraisers

Poinsettia fundraiser deadline is November 29th, please bring back your order forms by then and help fundraise for GBH! Information about the Christmas Wish List should be arriving by email in December

Upcoming Activities

December 2-6 is PJ week, optional of course, whoever wants to wear their PJs can do so all week long Tuesday December 3rd and Friday December 6th are our movie days, the kids will watch "Prep and Landing" during the program. Friday the 20th is our Fort Building Day, as well as another PJ day!

Decorating the Gingerbread Houses:

December 11th, 12th and 13th, parents are welcome to come and help decorate delicious gingerbread houses (made by Karen) at 11am!

Concert Days

December 18th and 19th are Concert Days: Parents are invited to come and watch your child in concert, which starts at 9:30am. Afterwards, there will be a visit from Santa with gifts for the kids and a holiday party where all of the families can gather and eat treats!

Be sure to fill out our parent playground survey, which has been sent by email

Watch out for some upcoming logo changes to our website and facebook page!